2.40(b)(2) Attending Veterinarian and Adequate Veterinary Care...DIRECT.... failure to establish and maintain programs of veterinarian care that use appropriate methods to prevent, control, diagnose, and treat diseases and injuries

3.125(a) Facilities General....repeated failure to construct and maintain facilities in such a manner as to protect animals from injury and to contain the animals

3.125(c) Facilities, General....repeated failure to store feed in facilities which adequately protect supplies against deterioration, molding or contamination by vermin

3.127(b) Facilities, Outdoorrepeated failure to provide natural and artificial shelter appropriate to the local climatic conditions for the species concerned

3.131(c) Sanitation....repeated failure to keep premises clean and in good repair in order to protect the animals from injury and to facilitate prescribed husbandry practices

The Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) created federal regulations to ensure the welfare of animals and help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impacts that are detrimental to the public interest, APHIS is providing you with an Official Warning for the violation(s) described above. Any further violation of these federal regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty, criminal prosecution, or other sanctions. If you have any questions concerning this Official Warning or violation(s), please contact the APHIS official listed in this notice.
